CAT ADOPTION APPLICATION

Humboldt Animal Rescue Team is a nonprofit organization that focuses primarily on reducing the number of homeless animals in our community. Whenever possible, we rescue abandoned cats and kittens, provide them medical care, and make them available for adoption. An adoption donation of $100 for each cat or kitten pays a portion of their medical costs including: spay/neuter, vaccinations, and testing for feline leukemia.

ADOPTION QUESTIONNAIRE

This is a long list of questions but considering them before you adopt is important. At least half the animals in shelters are surrendered by people who didn't think through the responsibilities of caring for an animal before getting one. Please don't make the same mistake. Sharing your life with an animal can bring incredible rewards but only if you are willing to make necessary commitments of time, money, responsibility, and love for the life of an animal. Thank you for taking the time to answer the following questions.

YES NO

- ___ ___ Are you able and willing to spend at least $350/year to keep a cat?
- ___ ___ Will you take the cat to a veterinarian for care when needed?
- ___ ___ Are you willing to invest in a monthly flea preventative (about $15/month)
- ___ ___ Is everyone in your household in favor of adopting a cat?
- ___ ___ Does your landlord know about and approve of a new feline tenant? I own a home: ___
- ___ ___ Are you planning to move within the next six months?
- ___ ___ Will you be present to supervise your young children when they are around the cat/kitten?
- ___ ___ Do you have time to devote to the care of the cat, including petting and grooming?
- ___ ___ Will the cat have a litterbox?
If yes, how often will you clean it? _____
- ___ ___ Are you committed to keeping the cat even if s/he scratches furniture or drapes?
If so, how will you deal with this? _____
- ___ ___ Are you comfortable with the thought of cat hair on your furniture and clothing?
- ___ ___ Are you prepared to commit to this cat for the next 10 to 20 years?
- ___ ___ If you must move, will you relocate to a residence that accepts pets?
- ___ ___ Will you keep this kitten indoors until the age of 6 months and completely vaccinated, including leukemia and rabies vaccination

Please provide any additional information about yourself and your reason for wanting to adopt a cat/kitten: _____
